2.1. Failure to achieve the required proficiency:

- a) All offers to study at Acknowledge Education are conditional upon students adhering to Acknowledge Education’s English proficiency requirements. Failure to comply may result in the withdrawal of an offered place in any course.
- b) Where a student does not meet this requirement, the student may undertake an ELICOS course at AE, and will be advised the amount of tuition required to attain proficiency.
- c) Where the student satisfactorily completes the prescribed period of ELICOS study, the student will be deemed to have achieved English proficiency and will be admitted to the course.

2.2. Preliminary English Test (offshore students):

- a) Upon application, offshore students are required to undertake a Preliminary English test. This test provides an indication of the student’s proficiency in English.
- b) The Preliminary English test is not a substitute for the MLC English test, which the student must undertake additionally.
- c) All Preliminary English tests are to be assessed by the Director of Studies (MLC) who will provide an indicative IELTS score for each student.
- d) Where the student scores below 6.0, the Director of Studies (MLC) will provide a recommendation to the Registrar detailing the period of ELICOS study the student must undertake in order to reach the required proficiency.
- e) Where the student satisfactorily completes the prescribed period of ELICOS study, the student will be deemed to have achieved English proficiency and will be admitted to the course.
